

Ted Kober
Biographical Information

Ted Kober serves as Senior Ambassador for Ambassadors of Reconciliation (AoR). Since AoR's founding, he served as President until 2015. Ted has published articles, Bible studies, devotions, training courses, and books. He teaches in congregations, church-worker conferences, schools, universities, and seminaries throughout the world. A Certified Christian Conciliator™ since 1992, Ted consults and conciliates in cases ranging from personal disputes to lawsuits and church conflicts. He and wife Sonja live in Billings, Montana.

Built on the Rock: The Healthy Congregation
Summary of Ted's Presentation

What Really Makes a Church Healthy? Family systems theory? Successful business practices? Acquiring characteristics of healthy organizations? In his new book, Built on the Rock: The Healthy Congregation, Ted Kober posits what makes a church healthy is how well its people, especially her leaders, are grounded in God's Word. Learn what the book reveals from research, the Scriptures, and 25 years' experience as a church reconciliation consultant. Then, identify personal and corporate idols, and apply self-examination, confession, and forgiveness to bring healing to broken relationships.